

Steelwind Industries Awarded General Mitchell Airport and Kalahari Resorts Projects

Oak Creek, WI, October 20, 2014: Steelwind Industries, Inc., a local steel fabrication company has been awarded two major industrial painting projects.

Steelwind Industries will paint the Airport Renovation Canopies at General Mitchell International Airport and will paint a slide structure for the Kalahari Resort in the Wisconsin Dells.

In addition to the overhaul of the glass canopies, General Mitchell's $45 million renovation project includes rebuilding the baggage claim road and curb and replacing the traffic island.

"We are proud to be a part of both of these projects that are seen by so many residents and visitors of our great city and state," said Jason Geiger of SteelWind Industries.

###

SteelWind Industries is a large capacity Midwest metal fabrication company offering the most extensive metal fabrication including mining equipment, tanks, and architectural metal fabrication. SteelWind Industries is also the proud fabricator of the Miller Park Retractable Roof. In addition to metal fabrication, SteelWind Industries offer machining, heat treating services, sand blasting, and industrial painting. From raw processing to completed products, Steelwind Industries has the capability to handle all project requirements under one roof at their facility in Oak Creek, WI.

For more information or to schedule an interview with Jason Geiger, Vice President of Operations, please contact Debra Lopez at Debra Lopez Public Relations, LLC. At 262-989-0604.

